One Night Only! A special event semi-staged reading of a new play

A Week in Mercy Falls

by local playwright Jennifer Goran

Saturday, February, 4th

7:30 p.m.

Parkland College Theatre

Reminiscent of the charismatic older women in Steel Magnolias and the quirkiness of the girls in Crimes of the Heart, the new comedy drama, A Week in Mercy Falls, explores the importance of humanity and community. Set in Mercy Falls, Illinois, the three Full sisters - Faith, Hope and Joy - are living together due to circumstances beyond their control. A local doll shop, Aunt Dottie's Dolls, provides a safe haven for Faith and Hope along with many townsfolk who frequent the store, but dramatic change looms in their lives. Big laughs abound as you experience the people in Mercy Falls and wonder what the future will hold for them.

Mercy Falls Bake Sale Potluck items provided by Altrusa International of Champaign-Urbana, a service organization specializing in community needs, leading to a better community. All proceeds to benefit United Way of Champaign County.
